

REPUBLICAN HOUSE NOMINEES GET CASH

$500 From National Funds Aid Folk, Anson, La Guardia and Schwartz.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Republican Congressional committee, in a supplemental statement filed to-day with the Clerk of the House, made reports on districts to which it has sent money to aid Republican candidates. The reports covered districts in Ohio, Missouri, Michigan, Indiana, Maryland, New York and Tennessee.

Contributions since the last statement were $9,726, of which $5,000 was from the Republican Senatorial committee. Candidates to whom it sent funds included:

Ohio—Representatives Morgan, Foster, Ricketts and Moore, $500 each; Thompson, $344; Fitzgerald, $250; Beggs and Sparks, for organization and education work, $250 each.

Missouri—Ralph Killian, campaign manager for Representative Rhodes, $1,000; Representative Faust and Hukrieder, $500 each; C. L. Faust, nominee in the Fourth district, $500.

New York—Representatives Folk and Anson, F. H. La Guardia, nominee in the Twelfth district, and Albert Schwartz, nominee in the Eighteenth, $500 each.

The Herman A. Metz campaign fund, through Maurice J. Lewis, treasurer, reported contributions of $1,350 and expenditures of $693 in behalf of Mr. Metz, Democrat, seeking to wrest the Seventeenth district seat in New York from Representative Mills. Metz and C. L. Garbabin of Boston each gave $1,000 to the fund.

Wayne B. Wheeler, as treasurer of the campaign committee of the Anti-Saloon League of America, sent in a supplemental statement showing no additional contributions and expenditures of $461 in Illinois, Maryland, Ohio and Vermont "to aid in the election of Congressmen opposed to, and to defeat candidates favorable to the beer and wine prohibition act." The money was used mainly for printing and circulation of documents against beer and wine, and listed some candidates heretofore mentioned in league reports.

$10,000 ESTATE MUST GO INTO 1865 MONUMENT

Relatives Fail to Upset Donnelly's Will.

Edward J. Donnelly's gift through his will of $10,000 for a bronze monument in Hamilton Park, Jersey City, to commemorate "the soldiers of New Jersey who fought in the War of the Rebellion" was upheld yesterday by Judge James McCarthy in Jersey City Orphan Court.

Donnelly, who lived at 25 Monticelli avenue, Jersey City, and was 82 at his death, September 11 last, left $1,500 a his $11,500 estate to relatives. They contested the will on the ground of sentimentalism.
